

NOMINATION FOR THE 2008 ANNUAL GIDEON AWARD

The purpose of the Indiana Public Defender Council's Gideon Award is to honor an individual who embodies the attributes of a zealous criminal defense lawyer for poor persons in Indiana and has distinguished him or herself in cases or his/her career.

The Gideon Award is named in honor of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 US 335, 344-345 (1963), which first articulated the right to appointed counsel in felony cases.
